

Ministry of Labour

CA20N

L

-2024

Industrial Relations Division

Timely and Effective Assistance in Labour-Management Relations

he Industrial Relations Division, through the offices listed below, provides third-party assistance to Ontario labour and management. The overall objective of the division is to help maintain stable labour-management relationships in the province.

■ OFFICE OF MEDIATION

(416) 965-4104

Director

Romain (Rome) C. Verheyen

■ OFFICE OF ARBITRATION

(416) 965-5669

Director

Jean M. Read

■ OFFICE OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING INFORMATION

(416) 965-6886

Research and Analysis

(416) 965-6135

Collective Agreements Library

Chief Economist

Len Haywood

Administrator

Catherine Winter

-
- ▶ Provides conciliation assistance under the Labour Relations Act.
 - ▶ Provides mediation assistance in collective bargaining disputes.
 - ▶ Provides preventive mediation assistance to improve labour-management relationships.
-
- ▶ Advises minister on arbitration appointments under:
 - Section 45 – Labour Relations Act
 - Section 44 – Labour Relations Act
 - Section 40 (a) – Labour Relations Act
 - Hospital Labour Disputes Arbitration Act
 - ▶ Provides grievance mediation assistance.
 - ▶ Maintains list of arbitrators.
 - ▶ Catalogues and files arbitration awards for public review.
-
- ▶ Develops and provides information, data and analyses on collective agreements, negotiated wages and benefits and all matters related to labour relations and collective bargaining.
 - ▶ Maintains an up-to-date file of collective agreements for public and government use.

Industrial Relations Division
Ontario Ministry of Labour
400 University Avenue
Toronto, Ontario
M7A 1T7